

Sister's Spin

January 25, 2021

Today, Jan. 25th, is the feast of the Conversion of St. Paul. It also marks the end of the week of prayer for Christian Unity. It is the only feast that specifically marks one man's conversion--an action that had perhaps the greatest effect on the Church in all its history. Change did not come easy for Paul; he spent many days and years discovering what God was calling him to do. So it is with us. If one seeks a need to change, Paul may be the one to ask for extra help.
