

Sister's Spin

March 8, 2021

One thing I like about Lent is the variety of Bible Stories that are included as part of the daily Lenten Readings. One meets so many different characters from the Old Testament, such as Naaman - today's reading- Esther, Moses, and many others. From some of them, God asks extraordinary things while others are asked to do the ordinary things of the times. Like Naaman in today's reading--he expected the prophet to do something great to cure his leprosy, but instead, he was told to just go and wash in the Jordan River and he would be cured. He did and he was! For us, too, just doing what we should be doing is enough for God, if we do it to the best of our ability. These Lenten Days, it isn't always necessary to do the extraordinary, but just to do the ordinary well.
