

Sister's Spin

September 8, 2020

Spiritual writers often compare our lives to that of a quilt that is being woven by the actions of our lives. We only see the finished product when we reach our goal--heaven. In Mary's case, I wonder what was in her "quilt"--certainly the word YES was prominent, perhaps a large water/wine jar, maybe a cross--along with many other symbols of her beautiful life. If you were making a quilt for Mary, what would the scraps of cloth show about the life of this woman who became the Mother of God? If one can find a quiet moment today, maybe Mary will share what is in her heavenly quilt.

Happy Birthday, Mary!
