

Sister's Spin

September 22, 2020

Today is the first official day of Fall, so it is a good time to think again about the Season of Creation. Today could be considered the halfway point in this special time. Since yesterday, September 21, was the International Day of Peace, perhaps this is a good time to think about making peace with our earth. As we witness the destruction caused by the wild fires and the hurricanes, let us ask our God to have mercy on us and to show us how we can better care for creation in these times.
