

Sister's Spin

October 1, 2020

"...your mission, should you choose to accept it..." If you recognize this quote, then you were a Mission Impossible Fan. I don't think today's saint, Therese of Lisieux, was, but she did recognize that God had a mission for her and she fulfilled it by doing all things, especially little things, with great love. That's how she became a saint--and also the patron saint of the Mission Work of the Church. So, your mission, should you choose to accept it, is...

- Sister Marcianne

