

Sister's Spin

October 19, 2020

Today, October 19th, is the feast of the North American Martyrs. It celebrates the first missionaries to this country who came to work with the Native Americans. These laymen and priests suffered numerous tortures, were sent back to their home lands, yet returned to this country to continue to bring the good news to Indian Tribes in this country and Canada. Theirs was the first blood shed on this soil in order to bring others to Christ. Let us ask for their intercession and blessing on this land of North America as we continue to deal with the problems of our time.
