

Sister's Spin

November 10, 2020

Today is the feast of Pope St. Leo the Great--the first pope to be designated with the title--the Great. He is known for many things, but for us today, his best accomplishments were in the area of peacemaking and unification. He worked diligently to keep peace in the area of Rome as well as other European areas, even persuading Attila the Hun to leave Rome without sacking it. He worked for unity among all members of the Church of his time, fighting heresies such as Manichaeism and Pelagianism. In these times, Leo would be welcome to assist us in bringing peace to our nation and world and to unite us to work for the good of all. Truly, a saint for our time!
