

Sister's Spin

November 24, 2020

Like most of you, I wear a mask these days when in public places, at school and church. I don't always enjoy wearing it, especially as I walk into places and my glasses fog up. But recently, as this happened, I thought of something St. Paul said to the Corinthians: "...Now I see dimly, as in a mirror, but then, face to face..."

Seeing dimly through my fogged up glasses reminds me that right now I may not understand all that God is doing, but someday it will all be clear--just as my glasses will eventually "defrost". It may take a little longer than it takes my glasses to clear, but then, patience is a virtue still to be sought.

As this Church Year comes to an end, and we enter a new Church Year and the season of Advent, we give thanks for all the blessings God has showered upon us. We remember that God is present in each moment, whether we can see Him clearly or through a little fog. Either way, we give thanks!

Have a very Blessed Thanksgiving and let me be the first to wish you a Happy New Year!

-Sister Marcianne

