

Sister's Spin

November 30, 2020

On this last day of November, the Church celebrates the feast of St. Andrew. He is the brother of St. Peter, and one thing that always impressed me about Andrew was the statement in the Gospel of John that said after meeting with Jesus, he brought his brother to Jesus. It sets me to thinking about who I have brought to Jesus this day. Hopefully, I have brought my brother to Jesus, but who else? This is a question to ponder, perhaps as this Advent Season begins.

Who will I bring to Jesus today or during this Advent Season?
