

Sister's Spin

December 1, 2020

"Fear not!" Have you ever noticed how often these words are spoken in just the first few chapters of Luke's Gospel? To Zechariah, to Mary, to Joseph, to the shepherds...One might think this is a part of the Advent message. What might God be saying to us today as we hear these words in the stories of the Gospel of Luke? Certainly there is much to fear in these pandemic days just as there were many occasions for fear in the time of the first coming of Jesus. All of these people who heard these words put their trust in God. Perhaps we are being called to do the same.

For a few more thoughts, go to the web site--"Just Drop the Blanket" and get a new perspective on the Charlie Brown Christmas Special. Be sure to read part 2 also.

Have a great day!
