Sauk Valley Bank Student of the Month Fernanda Reyes- Zamora December 2020

It is now time to announce our Sauk Valley Bank student of the month for December. Our December student of the month is very active at school and in the community by being involved in National Honor Society, Ambassador Club, knitters club, Key Club, BLIND, FCA and Model UN. She has represented Newman being in tennis, cheerleading, track and golf. Outside of school she is a member of Sacred Heart and is an eucharistic minister along with volunteering at special olympics, PADS homeless shelter and other community events. She plans on studying psychology and criminology at a 4 year university and becoming a criminal psychologist. Congratulations, Fernanda Reyes-Zamora, December student of the month.
