

Newman Central Catholic High School

Sauk Valley Bank Student of the Month

Will Cheng

February 2021

At this time we announce our February Sauk Valley Bank student of the month. Our February student of the month embraces being a Newman student. He is a member of the National Honor Society, Math team, recycling club, Kairos leader and manages the football and basketball teams. He is a TA for engineering design and enjoys working with his drone in his free time. He loves helping others and being involved with the Newman family. His future plans include attending a four year university in the United States and major in mechanical engineering. Congratulations to Will Cheng, February student of the month.
