SCHOOL HISTORY

Newman is a Rockford Diocesan Central Catholic High School. As such, it is an educational institution with its own Articles of Civil Incorporation in the State of Illinois and is under the Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction of the Bishop of the Diocese of Rockford. In the United States, there are three forms of governance for Catholic High Schools – private, parochial and diocesan. Private schools typically are schools operated by religious orders of priests, brothers or sisters. Parochial schools normally are operated by a single parish or two or three parishes. Diocesan schools are operated by a diocese and are directly under the authority of the Bishop of the Diocese. Newman is a cooperative venture of twenty (20) Catholic parishes located in the Whiteside, Ogle and Lee Counties. These twenty (20) parishes are each assessed a percent of their income to help support Newman Central Catholic High School. Newman, in conjunction with the twenty (20) Catholic parishes, accept this economic burden to provide youth with a faith based education that will prepare them for participation in the Church and the world.

The educational policy making body for the Rockford Diocese is the Diocesan Education Commission. This body has representative members from all areas of the diocese and its policy determinations are applicable to all elementary and secondary schools. The local policy making body for Newman is Newman’s Council of Administration. The Council membership consists of representative pastors and lay persons from each of the twenty (20) participating parishes.

Newman’s beginnings started when Monsignor A. J. Burns founded a high school in 1915 on the St. Mary’s Parish campus known initially as St. Mary’s High School and then Catholic Community High School before the present name of Newman Central Catholic High School. In 1959, Newman was constructed and dedicated by His Excellency, The Most Reverend Loras T. Lane, Bishop of Rockford. In 1960, the student body from Catholic Community High School moved to the new structure known as Newman. The school and convent were built on the 30-acre site. In the early years, the Sisters of Loretto, who served in this community for over 50 years, staffed Newman. Diocesan priests and lay teachers completed the staff.

SCHOOL SYMBOLS

John Henry Newman became famous as an Anglican priest and a faculty member at Oxford University. He founded the Oxford Movement, which tried to reform the Anglican Church by steering a path towards a “High Church” restoration of ancient doctrine and practice. For years, he was accused of leaning toward Rome. He vehemently denied it. His dead-serious intellectual approach with his perception of the supernatural world, made him famous within Oxford and outside it.

In 1845, after many years of subtle and obscure research into fifth-century heresies, he had an acute religious crisis. “In the middle of the fifth century, I found Christendom of the nineteenth century reflected. I saw my face in that mirror and I was a Monophysite.” Newman explained his conversion, “Still so it is; we need a relief to our hearts, that they may be dark and sullen no longer, or that they may not go on feeding upon themselves; we need to escape from ourselves to something beyond.” Newman became a Catholic and was ousted from Oxford. He found a new place for himself at the Oratory of St. Philip Neri, a community of priests living under a rule but not under vows, which would allow him to continue his research and writing.

In 1879, Pope Leo XIII elevated John Henry Newman to the status of Cardinal. In his later years, he was to be an influence on the next generation of Oxford undergraduates and counseled many (including the great poet Gerard Manley Hopkins) through their own religious crises. He tended to advise caution to those who expressed an interest in going over to Rome. “You must be patient; you must wait for the eye of the soul to be formed in you.” Cardinal Newman died in 1890. He chose for his memorial, “Ex umbris ex imaginibus in veritatem” translated to “[f]rom shadows and images to the truth.” Cardinal Newman is our patron saint and his feast day is celebrated on January 5th.

SCHOOL SYMBOLS

There is an atomic cloud, test-tube and butterfly designating Science. Left of Christ is a music staff and notes calling attention to the Music Department; numerical equations denote the Math department; and a scroll and pen signifying Literature and English. The Newman Alumni Association in 1959 donated the 17 ft. by 10 ft. stained glass window.

Newman's Logo symbolizes Christ in the middle of Newman's life and effort. The cross, in the middle of the crest, is the same as the wooden cross above the tabernacle in the Chapel.

Newman's Comet represents our energy and effort as being out of this world.

SCHOOL SONG

Newman Loyalty

N.H.S. N.H.S. we salute the blue and white

4. Sharing work with another student or assisting him/her to obtain another's work unless permitted by the teacher.
5. Accessing electronic devices, such as cell phones, during a test.
Any behavior, which can be defined as cheating, represents a violation of mutual trust and respect essential to education at Newman Central Catholic High School. Students who cheat should expect to be confronted by their teacher and be subject to penalties.

ACADEMICS

COURSE SYLLABI AND OUTLINES

During the first week of classes, each student will receive a course outline and/or syllabus for each of his or her classes listing the procedures and requirements and stating the course objectives and the evaluation measures used to determine the student's grade. CURRICULUM GUIDE

The Curriculum Guide may be found on the Newman website. The Curriculum Guide includes course descriptions, grading scale, graduation requirements, block schedule and more.

COLLEGE REPRESENTATIVES

College representatives visit the school regularly throughout the school year to recruit potential students. To schedule a meeting, the student must procure a "College Representative Visit" form from the Guidance Office. This form must be presented to the classroom teacher at the beginning of the period for which the appointment is scheduled. The classroom teacher has final authority to grant or not grant such permission. The signing of the form by the classroom teacher indicates the student is granted permission to miss class to attend the meeting with the college representative.

FORGERY

Forgery includes changing the time or date on a pass, forging the name of school personnel or parents/guardians. Students engaged in such activities will be referred to the Dean of Students for disciplinary action.

GRADING PHILOSOPHY

Grades are an evaluation of what the student has learned, reflecting both on the mastery of the course objectives and the total effort and enthusiasm expended by the student in this process. In accordance with the concepts of motivation and reinforcement as well as in cooperation with the Illinois Board of Education, Newman requires a letter grade evaluation for each class. Grades are a part of the student's transcript and are important for entrance into institutions of higher learning and to potential employers. For more details on grading philosophy, please review the Curriculum Guide.

ACADEMICS

ATTENDANCE POLICY

Attendance is part of the student’s permanent school records and is recorded on their transcript. All absences are classified as excused or unexcused. Medical appointments, early dismissals and college visits are included in this regulation. A student who misses two class periods will be marked absent for a half day. A student who misses three or more class periods will be marked a full day absent.

EXCESSIVE ABSENCES

As deemed necessary by the Board of Discipline, a student with excessive absences will be required to sign an Attendance/Behavioral Contract and the parents/guardians will receive a letter advising them of the attendance concern. If the student continues to miss school, the parents/guardians and student will be required to meet with the Board of Discipline. The number of days absent will be reflected on the student’s final transcript.

HOMEWORK

SHORT TERM ABSENCE: If a student is too ill to attend school, Newman prefers the student spend time recuperating and resume regular school work when he or she returns to school. Therefore, the Attendance Office usually does not provide homework assignments.

LONG TERM ABSENCE: For absences of two days or more, parents may request teachers to provide assignments from the teacher.

Students who are absent from classes are required to make up work missed in each class. It is the student’s responsibility to make arrangements with teachers or other students to obtain all make-up work. Make-up tests are taken at times other than the regular class session so students do not miss another class period.

ATTENDANCE

PLANNED ABSENCE FROM SCHOOL

Any student, wishing to be absent from school will be required to have a Planned Absence Form signed by each teacher and the Dean of Students before their departure. This completed form must be submitted to the Dean of Students prior to the planned absence. A “no” from any student’s teacher will prevent the student from participating in the planned activity. In addition, the student must be academically eligible.

REPORTING PROCEDURE

When a student is going to be absent, the parent must report the absence to the school prior to 8:30 am. Parents must report every day the student is absent, even when the illness continues for more than one day.

TARDINESS TO SCHOOL OR CLASS

Students will receive detention for 2 or more unexcused. As deemed necessary by the Board of Discipline, a student with excessive tardiness will be required to sign an Attendance/Behavioral Contract and the parents/guardians will receive a letter advising them of the attendance concern. - 1.
2. Individual or group skipping school.
3. Oversleeping.
4. Other absences as determined by the Dean of Students.

TRUANCY: an absence without the consent of the school or parents/guardians is truancy. Leaving during the school day without the consent of the school is also truancy. Truants will serve an in-school suspension and the absence will be recorded as an unexcused absence. A second truancy will result in an in-school suspension and a Saturday detention. A third truancy will necessitate going before the Board of Discipline.

BEHAVIOR

STUDENT BEHAVIOR

Good behavior, which reflects the school's philosophy, is expected from all members of the Newman community. Students are to treat others with respect, dignity and courtesy. These attributes are to be exercised in classrooms, hallways, and in the cafeteria as well as at all school activities. A student who interferes with the teaching procedures and hinders the learning process is to be referred to the Dean of Students for disciplinary action. Likewise, students may be penalized for public behavior deemed unacceptable. Included in this regulation is off-campus behavior which reflects poorly on the Newman community. Penalties may take the form of exclusion from Newman's co-curricular activities, teams, dances, programs, etc. Appropriate disciplinary action is solely an administrative decision.

BOARD OF DISCIPLINE

The Board of Discipline is convened at the special request of the Dean of Students to consider a student's serious or repeated behavior. The Board of Discipline also serves as the appeal board for athletic and co-curricular code violations. The Dean of Students will notify parents/guardians of any student under Board of Discipline review. STUDENT ACTIVITIES

STUDENT COUNCIL

Student Council helps to prepare students for leadership roles and gives them a voice in the governing of the school. Membership in Student Council is by student election. Interested students are required to attend Student Council meetings and serve on committees for the various activities. Student Council officers include president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer.

Elections for Student Council Officers are held in May of the previous school year. To be eligible for these positions, candidates are required to have a minimum cumulative 2.5 grade point average, display qualities of leadership, and have a good disciplinary record.

Candidates for president must have senior standing. Specific duties for all officers are available from the moderator. Failure of any members of the Student Council to comply with the responsibilities, duties and/or expectations for their positions could result in being removed from the Student Council. All class officers are automatically members of the Student Council.

SUMMER FUNCTIONS POLICY

Newman's Council of Administration as well as administration encourage and promote student and staff participation and attendance at coaching schools, music clinics, athletic camps, dance/cheerleader camps and other such events that may be held at or away from Newman during the summer months. All Newman summer sport's activities are strictly on a voluntary basis.

Newman shall not, however, incur any liability for any of these aforementioned summer activities nor does it assume responsibility for transporting, collecting funds, or payment of any fees related to those activities unless they are officially sponsored activities of the school. All Newman sponsored activities need prior approval from the principal and only those sponsored by Newman shall be known as such. Staff, students, parents and sponsors entered in summer activities under the name of Newman shall conform to all of the Newman Central Catholic High School codes of conduct.

STUDENT ATHLETIC HANDBOOK

Dear Athletes and Parents,

Welcome to the Newman Athletic Program. Being a member of a Newman Catholic athletic team carries responsibilities. Each student athlete must commit to complete loyalty and dedication. Parent and athletes are expected to be positive leaders in promoting good sportsmanship.

There are nearly 400 scheduled athletic events, 28 teams and approximately 40 coaches involved in the athletic program at Newman Catholic. The purpose of the athletic program is to provide youth with the opportunity to experience success through interscholastic competition as they develop into mature, responsible people.

This handbook is provided to give parents and athletes the information required to become a successful Newman athlete. We ask you to read this handbook carefully and discuss it with your child involved in the Newman Athletic Program.

It is mandatory that parents and athletes complete on-line athletics registration before a student athlete may participate in practice or interscholastic competition. A physical must also be completed and turned in prior to 1st practice.

Respectfully,

Mike Papoccia,
Athletic Director

A "reasonable suspicion" of drug and/or alcohol use may be based upon the observation of the student's behavior, information received regarding alleged alcohol or drug use and/or other evidence-giving rise to a suspicion of violation of this policy by a school official or the individual's parents or guardian. A student's failure to cooperate in testing required by this policy or other violation of this policy may result in disciplinary action up to and including expulsion from school. COMMITMENT TO THE ATHLETIC PROGRAM

As a member of a Newman Catholic athletic team, all athletes and parents are to understand and abide by the expected level of commitment for such membership. Newman athletes are expected to attend and participate at all practice sessions and contest, support fellow teammates and respect coaches.

At the beginning of each athletic season the school has scheduled a Mass for all coaches, athletes and parents. All athletes who intend to participate in a sport must attend the Mass scheduled at the beginning of each season.

Coaches may develop contracts specific to their sport if they choose. Attendance at practices and contests is important for the continuity and development of any team. However, an athlete, who will be absent for a vacation or trip with parent(s), must present notification of that intent to his/her coach.

Your choice to compete in the Newman Athletic Program will have precedence over any outside athletic activities. Each practice or game missed, as a result of attending outside athletic activities, will result in an athletic unexcused absence.

CONCUSSION INFORMATION

Newman has an extensive concussion policy, developed in accordance with state law. A copy of the concussion policy is available in the athletic office. Learn the basic rules and strategies of the sport to gain a better understanding of it. Because sportsmanship begins with you, we ask that you exhibit good sportsmanship at all times. Your admission to a contest is to watch the performance of our student athletes. It is not a license to abuse officials, coaches, players or other spectators. Be a positive role model for our entire student athletes.

Bring any questions or problems concerning your son/daughter to the attention of the coach involved first. If your questions or problems are not answered, please contact the Athletic Director and then if necessary the Principal.

PARTICIPATION OF ATHLETES IN OUT-OF-SEASON ACTIVITIES

Participation of athletes in any out-of-sport activity related to the athletic program at Newman Central Catholic High School is voluntary and completely at the discretion of the athlete and his/her parents. Any form of coercion to force an athlete to participate in any out of season activity is inappropriate.

Athletes are welcome to participate in as many out-of-season sports that are available. Athletes and parents are welcome to consult a coach for recommendations and advice concerning participation in these sports. However, non-participation in these sports cannot be justification for a player being cut or having less playing time than a teammate of comparable talent.

Athletes that choose to participate in out-of-season sports make the decision (with parental input) which activities and how much time is dedicated to those activities.

During the off-season, no athlete is to use or have use of school equipment pertaining to a sport that is out-of-season. Off-season activities are limited to weight training and running. Exceptions are for use of equipment needed for a summer camp or league.
