

Newman Central Catholic High School

Sauk Valley Bank Student of the Month

Claire Glaudel

May 2021

The May student of the month is in the National Honor Society, Key Club, Student Ambassador and Blind. You can see her on the sideline cheering for our teams during football and basketball. She volunteers her time teaching a dance competition team and has worked vacation bible school and participated in the Live Nativity for several years in Walnut. She works at Shell as the ice cream girl and stocker. She will be attending Iowa State University to major in fashion merchandising. Congratulations, Claire Glaudel, May student of the month.
