

Jessica Coleman/Strader Scholarship

Jessica lost her battle to breast cancer in 2013. She was a 2001 graduate of Prophetstown High School and a teacher at Sterling's Jefferson Elementary. She was a devoted mother and teacher. Her family has established a scholarship in her honor to be given to a student pursuing a degree in education or health care.

Qualifications: Graduating senior from Newman High School planning to enroll in education or health care. A cashiers check will be mailed to the winner, once college enrollment has been established.

Award: $500 non-renewable scholarship to be awarded to the student.

Due Date: March 14th in the counseling office

Application: Write a 500 word essay about someone who has inspired you. Turn 2 copies in, one with your name on it and one without your name.
