

Sister's Spin

March 7, 2022

March is a month dedicated to women in history. Two saints that come up early in the month are Sts. Perpetua and Felicity. Perpetua was a young widow with a child and Felicity was her pregnant slave. They were arrested and imprisoned for their faith and suffered many tortures. A few days before being executed, Felicity gave birth to a baby girl and their execution followed a few days later. Perpetua was known for writing a diary which exists today and speaks of the sufferings of their time. Churches of many countries celebrate their feast as brave women who held to their goal of suffering for their faith. Let us ask their intercession for all the mothers and children who are fleeing persecution now in the Ukraine, that they may have the courage and graces to persevere in t

-Sister Marcianne

