

Sister's Spin

October 1, 2021

The beautiful month of October is finally here. September ended with the feast of that Scripture Scholar, Jerome, who though a man of many talents and tempers, knew the importance of reading the Word of God. October, with its variety of fall colors, also brings a variety of saints and other special events. This month starts with the feast of Therese, the Little Flower, who, once she entered her convent, never left it, yet she is the female patron of the Missions--those who go out to preach the Good News. Saturday brings the feast of our Guardian Angels--a good day to just sit and have a conversation with that Spirit who carries our messages and good deeds to God. The weekend concludes with the 27th Sunday of Ordinary Time--only 7 more Sundays until Advent! REALLY! But it is too soon to be thinking about the changes Advent will bring, so it is good just to enjoy October with its feasts, foods, and festivals. Have a great start to a great month!

-Sister Marcianne

