

Sister's Spin

October 7, 2021

Something must really be important if USA Today and The New York Times report on it. Such was the case when back in 2002, Pope John Paul II suggested a new set of Mysteries for the Rosary-the ones we call today the Luminous Mysteries. That announcement found its way into these two newspapers along with information on how to pray the Rosary and why the Holy Father felt these mysteries were important. Today, on this feast of Our Lady of the Rosary, it is still important to realize the good that comes to us through our prayer to Mary with meditation on the mysteries of our Lord's life. This sacramental, which can bring us closer to our Lord and our Lady by its use, serves to remind us of our call to follow Christ. Meditation on His life inspires us to "...go and do likewise...", as He told one of the Scribes, and our Lady will intercede for us for the graces we need to do just that. Our Lady of the Rosary, pray for us!
